Michael Hall Wines

Once a jewellery valuer in Switzerland, Michael hall's lifelong passion for wine came more of a reality in 2008, when his first vintage was released. Michael makes wine for Rocland estate in the Barossa valley, which is also the site where he produces his own wine. Michael has worked for the likes of Giaconda, Henschke, Shaw + Smith, Cullen, Domain Leflaive, Vieux Telegraphe and Trevallon. Now after the first year of being released, Michael's wines have intrigued wine critics and lovers both in Australia and abroad, getting fantastic reviews and publicity. Michael Hall's wines represent elegance, complexity, finesse and true varietal characteristics.

Sang de Pigeon Barossa Shiraz Saignee 2008	94 James Halliday Guide 2010	12gls	54

Sang de Pigeon translates directly to pigeon's blood, and thus reflecting to the opulent red colour of the 2008 rose. A divine nose with hints of red fruits, spice and vegetal characteristics. Dry on the palate with considerable grip, fine acid and a clean finish with notes of strawberry, violet and cloves. This fine example of rose is a fabulous summer wine to be enjoyed with seafood, pork, cured meats or as a refreshing aperitif.

Piccadilly Valley Chardonnay 2008	94 James Halliday Guide 2010		77

Michael's site in the Piccadilly Valley is one of the highest Chardonnay vineyards in Australia, sitting at 650m elevation. This exclusive location expresses the chardonnays true varietal style of Bourgogne. Inviting primary characteristics on the nose of peach, passionfruit and cantaloupe followed with hints of lanolin, spice and smoke developed through French oak imported from Mersault and slight Malo-lactic fermentation. On the palate, fresh peach and green pear, supported by striking acid, good mouthfeel and a long finish. A versatile wine suited to drink with pate, chicken or oily fish.

Eden Valley Syrah 2007	94 James Halliday Guide 2010		87

This Eden Valley Syrah will mesmerize you to the very last mouthful, showing complexity beyond its age. On the nose - cherry, plum and mulberries are at the forefront supported with perfumed hints of violet, rose and liquorice essenuated by the cool site climate. On the palate- cherry, blackberry and plum are present carried through by smoke, sweet and savoury spice supported by astringent tannins and clean acid. A very complex wine suited to be served with pork belly, lamb, duck or cheeses.
